

Friday 29 July 2011: 11: 31 am

The selection national U-17 tie with Omega Black

SAN CRISTOBAL. The selected national women's U-17 finished tied (0-0) with the Omega Select Black, of United States, in the first match of a triangular of football that is carried out at the Pan American Stadium of the city of San Cristobal.

Both set made the effort to leave goals for his team but was unable due to good defensive play in the game, even so, a good game left hundreds of fans who were at the Pan-American Stadium of San Cristóbal satisfied.

He said feel happy for the support given by the Federation in the person of engineer Osiris Guzmán, who faints not trying that the selected can feel comfortable and think about the powers of qualifiers will play in the country the day 24, 26 and next stage pan, San Cristóbal, August 28 in the face of the u-17 women's world which will be held in 2012 Jamaica and Aruba.

The triangular continued Friday when the selected sub 20 face visitors and Saturday these matches blanks are carried out thanks to the support of companies Orange Dominicana, Coca-Cola, Powerade, Brugal, Miderec and C & A, technicians and Associates (TIASA).

Author: Eric Rafael Castellanos e. source: Angel Sanchez